OPEN WIDE FUCKER!

As a long-time reader of Drummer and an "m." I get turned on by your magazine. A recent article hit one of my trips - medical exams. The article showed a medical exam table. I imagined myself nude on that table, strapped on my back w/legs fastened in the stirrups - wide-open for anything - and everything. Several requests. How about a guy being stripped, then strapped on a medical exam table, then getting cock/ball/ass exam and workover? Also, I am into shaving. How about a good series on a guy going to a barber and getting a full shave - everything including the head Finally, I am into c/b punishments especially the balls, I would like photos or articles dealing w/NEW equipment or methods of c/b punishment, especially on the balls

And now, a few words from the artist
My age: in my thirties. - Cancer.

Started to draw purely as a hobby during my school days. It was then a means of concentration, getting hot, turning-on with my fantasies. This is still an important factor today. I never had any art schooling. I picked it all up by experience. It isn't my profession eitner, I have a full-time job that's got noth ng to control travers, control to the leather scene in the array 705, a date which coincided with the appearance of my first metersting drawings. My interest in slightly more bizarre scenes came a few years later. Others have tried but I was the first to draw scat scenes. I'm still the only one who is still drawing these. I'm only one who is still drawing the still drawing the still draw which is still drawing the still drawing the still draw which is still drawing the still

Most of my drawings are done in a combination of ink and penell, sometimes colour pencil. Often I start a drawing without any real plan, and develop it gradually. People often ask how long at takes to finish a drawing: let me assure you I put hours and hours into it, and so does every artist. It may take a week or more to complete a single drawing.

I do not work from models, usually not even from photographs. A perfect likeness is not my ideal, I put more "imagination-value" into a drawing, Often my drawings are a starting point for your fantasy. I don't always show the full action, often my characters are "about to plug in and out"!

I suppose my artwork has a d stinctive European flavour. I don't draw the typical American props just because they typical American props just because they they be the tiller, So you see maybe more blond long-haired guys than you would like. One reason also is that my work is not commissioned. Just do what I flike, then ask if anyone else likes it.

If you do, you may soon have a chance to see more of it at my one-man show. Fey-Way in San Francisco will be the place

I eased past him into the first room: the har of the Mineshaft The early crowd had begun to line the walls of the room Leather, denim, and skin afternated in the rows of bodies out for early display, I had my orders. I went to the coat check and began my obedience number, just as Mr Benson had ordered me

The coat check at the Mineshaft is different than any other bar's in New York. They hardly limit themselves to customers' jackets. The man behind the counter hardly blinked as I stripped off my racket, then my pants, my shirt, and, finally, even

I think that the sneakers were the part that had bothered me the most. The Mineshaft was not a place where I felt like wanted to have naked contact with the floor in any way. But, the orders had been explicit, at midnight I was to be standing in front of the fake wooden rail fence in the front

Waiting for Mr Benson.

The idea of the lockstrap didn't produce a second glance in a place so used to them; I mean a sign on the wall said that the ple cowboys admired what they called my "flat golden nip-ples." An "Indian" liked my body with its rounded pecs. One particularly mean looking state trooper started to come over. against the fence and watched the game being played on the pool table it was not pool.

The clock over the bar said that I had fifteen minutes to countdown, I debated a beer. I had been smart enough to put a couple bucks in my pouch, I was dry-mouthed with tension. waiting for a climax to a week of solitude with my thoughts. fears, and fantasies. Waiting for Mr. Benson. I kept wondering what form the test would take? Why the Mineshaft? There was only one answer to that question, Mr 120d that from the beginning. My stomach felt light as I thought about all these eyes watching me now, and what they would be seeing when Mr Benson arrived, I remembered my body sprawled on the floor, sucking his toes, licking his feet, his insten or ishing a were at a some away would be done that, here, tonight? Or the last room another bar - would Mr Benson drag me into the dim light on the stage in that last room? Would be auction me off to the highest bidder? Or the biggest cock? Force me to do his bidding with whatever man, god or troll, climbed up on the stage with me?

The pouch of my jock strained against my pulsing dick as I cataloged the possible adventures. I should have known that Mr. Benson would have done none of them. After five years. know now that Mr. Benson is too much of an elitist to let me be used and abused by anyone. But, then, there are his friends, and I was about to learn how much Mr. Be own valued friend

The crowd at the Mineshaft must be the most laded in New York. There is almost nothing that they haven't seen take place right there in those six rooms and the two toilets. Every trip from rubber to wingtip shoes had been celebrated in its walls, but still there was a sudden quiet when The Presence came into the room, I hadn't been paying attention. I was too far sone into the fantasies of my evening to see It coming, but I had heard the silence. I looked up and saw him standing

The black doorman from that first night. He was wearing a very different type of uniform now then last week. He had on a black motorcycle cap. A tan uniform shirt with a black belt stretched across his chest. Then black

I don't know if I had ever appreciated his emmensity before. His body towered over me, even higher than Mr. Benson; but he had none of Mr. Benson's propertoned lines, only

Mr. Benson played off the perfect new cue. He got me up onto struggled to keep up with the figure moving through applause

Luckily, the doorman's body broke my fall, and his strong arm helped me on the way as I went into the bathroom behind Mr, Benson. I was surprised when the lights went on and I saw the toilet. It was large much too large for the clubhouse: it had two unnals, and two toilets. The walls and floors were immaculate white and-black tile, freshly scrubbed. I was to see into it should have prepared me. One good toilet deserves an other. It takes one to know one. And all that re-thinking tough stough!

I hadn't seen the signal Mr. Benson must have given the doorman who unlocked my handcuffs. The group had followed us into the large room and was forming a semi-circle. "Hey, Mr. Benson, wait a minute," The Pole spoke out as he stepped up to the toilet in front of where we were standing mediately started to piss in the bowl. Thick vellow streams was happening. "Never fear! You should certainly know that hair never lasts long in my household." New laughter clued me that the last's remark was a vow to Mr. Benson's own special tastes

Obviously, the man gave Mr. Benson the opening for something he had planned all along. The black doorman brought over a simple hag a doctor's black houseful case. Mr. Benson opened it on the table and placed the can of shaving cream, a deadly straight edge razor and a long, wide razor strop on the top. Accompanied by the appreciative noises of his audience. he went over to a nearby wall and attached the strop to a rine screwed directly into the brick. With his most dramatic gesture yet, he sharpened the str. of tedge with lang practial strokes.
For my pleasure? The groups? Or his own? Was this Reno Sweeney's or a term, not shuff seene to me sweeney. Fold?

The appearance I was putting in on the table was almost a relief Whether it was the sudden realization that this had more whether it was the sudden surge of pride and resolve on my part, or whether it was the sudden pride in Mr. Benson's compliments on my body, I'm not sure, It may also have been the fascination with which I watched him sharpen the instrument certainly knew that my crotch fur was going to go. Was any more? I looked down on my chest and saw the few strands of ples. Before that moment, I don't think that I had ever really thought much of the hair under my armpits. Would that Mr Benson came back over. The room became quieter as the men sat back to savor this next act to the show. My cock started to fil. They didn't hugh at its growing and, more they chuckled knowingly. A cool handful of stiff suds was rubbed over my sock and bulb. Then in the clump of hast over them. The wave of foam went up to my navel. Expertly smoothly, Mr Benson touched the cold steel to the base of my cock and scraped up, taking with the metal edge almost all of my brown bush, He repeated the long strokes with slow. deliberate care until my crotch was almost totally stripped Then, he grabbed my now fully hard prick and moved around to stand almost directly in front of me, pulling the sharpened edge down the length of my tool. Then he grasped my balls and stretched them to their limit; the steel, more rough now, cleaned off my double sac in shorter strokes. I was breathless is Mr. Benson peeces the covering from the

He manipulated my head down on the wooden surface, leaving my ass sticking in the air. He pulled my legs apart it the knees, exposing my assibile to like group. I felt the foam being applied again, its sudden chill going up and down my crack. I clenched my fists as I prepared for the rasping metal against my delicate hole. At first I had my eyes crosed, walting. When I felt the steel hardness against my thin-skinned vulnerability, I pulled up on my butthole It was then that I saw it. In front of me, now that I had my face away from the table. Standing over in the corner of the room where I couldn't have noticed it before. I hardly paid any attention to the rest of the shaving. I barely heard the comments on the excellence of the job being done by Mr. Benson. The new sight gripped me with fear, Could I with-stand that!? Would I be able to take it? I should have known have never found out if Mr Benson or the others had noticed my noticing, or whether it was really planned that they would grab me. From beyond my sight, their hands reached out and took hold of my ankles and then my wrists. They pulled without questions; they stretched my body against the table, my waist cutting into its edge. Two of them must have sat on the floor in order to maintain the pressure on my legs. Two others I could see as they held my arms sharp, y against the corners of the top.

I could see Mr Benson as he came back around the table, this time walking past me and over to the corner where he bent down to pick up the handle that rested over the edge of the brasier, its wood end protected from the hot coals that had turned the metal edge red with heat.

There was no circus hint in Mr Benson's voice now, "Men this slave is mine. He's come here of his own will He's agreed to be in my service. These games have been fun, but it's time we got down is the bas test of saa string awnership '.tu had walked around to the back of me, Cold sweat ran down my forehead. I thought that I would faint from the rush of pain that tore through me, reaching out from my right buttock, now, forever, marked by Mr. Benson They let go of me almost as soon as the act was over. I was so shocked with the glowing hurt, I stood there, bent over the table, grasping its edge even after they had released me

A cool hand went over my ass, smoothing a salve of some beside me, the strange medicine sending its smell into my nose. The sobs still heaved in my chest from my cries. I tried to hold them back, to regain myself. "Come here, boy, you

What more could he want?

The fire burned in my shank as I faced him

There it was The Sames Mr. Bensen's Land cock out celebrating my pain and marking. His heavy balls hung down over the snaps of his leather codpiece. I went over to him, wincing at every movement of my butt, dragging my right e, wallowing to ready myself for the quick rage of pain as I knelt and prayerfully took his beautiful cock in my mouth.

I knelt in communion with Mr. Benson like a religious fanatic who had journeyed to a shrine. My week of abstinence, my humiliation, my trial, all for this gorgeous mans.ck. This godstick. These ripe and full nuts hanging beneath my chin. I went mad with desire for his cock. Oblivious to my branded

Five years ago all that happened I have never been allowed to grow back my manhair. The scar on my buttock, of course, has cured to a fine mark. But, now. The sensation of that night seems so far away that I think it more pride than pain because it is Mr. Benson's mark on me a large B in a simple circle.

The night, that first night, was not over. But the branding be sught a climax to m, center stage perfirmance. Turn took me over to the doorway of the toilet when Mr. Benson's cock was finished with me. The enormous black reapplied my handcuffs and pushed me back down on my knees, reawakening the the Polace, Porytho, who put a reach effered sign around my neck: "Toilet." The Topmen went back to their drinking and smoking, ignoring me for a while except when they took the

I drank more piss that night than I had imagined doing in my fantasies at the Mineshaft. The sharp taste burnt in my mouth, relieved only by each new load that one of the cub members brought over to me as the great amounts of beer flushed out his system. Twice, my own water flowed unwatch these men in a group; I listened to them talk, trying to figure out who was who and what was going on, and trying to forget the brand that still sent shock waves through my body om, the black doorman, was obviously an attendant to Mr. Benson. Some sort of second !ieutenant! There is no doubt from the way he acted that his presence was because of my new master. His huge size and the terror he would throw in the eyes of anyone who saw his thickly sculptured African face was betrayed by the care he gave Mr. Benson's needs, and even mine. Jon was after all, the man who applied the salve to my wound that night.

If Tom were a stereotypein any way, the other black in the group was the opposite. From the conversation, even through my pain, I could tell that Brendan was a cop. I was startled by the thought of his tall stature in a deep bleu unit form and was able to spend a lot of time wondering if it would look any better buttoned and zipped and strapped into the outift of New York's finest than it did in the Topmen's uniform.

Brendan talked with a drawl that was almost Southern probably, at some point it was, but its edge was cut with an academic ability that showed itself whenever he and Mr. Berson talked. They were obviously the most intelligent of the group, and they emjoyed that intelligence greatly. Often, it was the state of the st

Mark, the man who had talked about the cat, was the most self-conscious of all, I thought. His attitude seemed a little too studied as he oulled up his belt everytime he approached me. His scowl seemed more put-on than the natural oul of the lip that Hans showed. And he seemed to have the least to say to the rest of the group He seemed to want almost to say to the rest of the group He seemed to want almost to

The two most talkatore, really, and the two most unlikely and the two who would have driven my old har friends crazy with lust — Lorned out to be lover. They were all in that group. I'd learn later that there were other bottoms that they owned. Some, though, like Mark, were loners; or like Hans, could never have expected anyone to stay around that long. Frank and Sal had little room left in their relationship for a third person to stay. And only Mr. Benson and Brendan dath extrength to rule any one person as fully as Mr. Benson would rule me for the next five years.

The beer and the smoke got to them. My exhausted body ay over in the corner, but the agoines! He had when I had first seen it puels out from under the folds; the contrast was shirt against the dark shiftskin.

The sexiest, almost tender encounter, was when Frank and Sal came over together and used my face as a hole to fuck while they made out over me. Their sloppy kisses and hard "Do it, man" slaps left me with a raging hardon after first one, then the other, had shot into me.

Mark, Mark strode over and drove into my mouth. He liked to talk dirty. His monolog describing my piss-drenched and cum-saturated body seemed more for his myn turn-on

Mr. Benson bent his neck down and softly, but firmly, kissed my bruised lips. That was all I remembered that night. When I woke up in it's about time someone set you straight This is 1979, Maybe 20 years ago a guy like myself would not of come out but I am old now. Yeah a real live hard hat construction man out in the N.Y. gav jungle. If you think it's bullshit look for me some night in the Mineshaft or better yet, search the rising towers of class fags you might get a big surprise some day and meet a RFAI man which from the sound of your mag's editorials you are really in need of one.

THE HEAVY HORNIES

Your magazine is by all odds the sexiest, wildest, heman magazine published anywhere in the USA. I have written to several guys who advertised in DRUMMER and have never been dicanpointed. As an ex-Manne, I dig real men. And all of your guys are exactly that all men. Red hot sexy animals in hed must like me, where anything and everything goes, from spunk to sweat to piss and to shit. That is real livin', man! I clipped out the picture that I am en-

BAREFOOT BEEF

Thanks for the article on barefeet

Page 13 was quite erotic and stimulating but the collage by Aigis | Nakas on page 12 was horrible. A cop out, I'm into street feet not beach feet. I want to see barefoot street walkers, college students etc. I want to see their feet from different angles. the heel Dry feet. Not ton shots of heach feet. What a waste!

I hope you print this soon, I just can't believe one can get his rocks off by just tit work. I went two weeks without i/o so I would be really hot. Then I them, put shaving cream on them, and I could not get off. I would like to know how this is done. Please don't use my name. Thank you.
